
BRADY J. OLTMANS

Brady.DejaEntendu@gmail.com 402-621-0471 www.BradyOltmans.com

EXPERIENCE

SPORTS REPORTER, CASPER STAR-TRIBUNE; CASPER, WYOMING – 2016-PRESENT

- Cover all high school sports across the state of Wyoming. Headed award winning athletics coverage of Casper's two high schools and surrounding communities.
- Cover non-revenue University of Wyoming athletics as well as supply supplemental coverage on University of Wyoming football and men's basketball. Report on the annual College National Finals Rodeo in Casper.
- Report on local events. Contribute stories for arts & culture section and Sunday A1 centerpieces. Aided in coverage of 2017 Total Solar Eclipse and 2016 Election.
- Act as interim sports editor by compiling sports budget, pulling stories off wire services and proofing pages. Produce special sections to highlight important developments in University of Wyoming athletics. Arrange section for layout.
- Co-host and co-write the first podcast dedicated to University of Wyoming athletics. Live tweet during events and Facebook Live before.

SPORTS CLERK, LINCOLN JOURNAL STAR; LINCOLN, NEBRASKA – 2011-2016

- University of Nebraska women's soccer beat reporter. Provide coverage of women's soccer in Nebraska with game stories, features, draft coverage, Women's World Cup updates and NCAA Tournament updates. Report on NCAA Tournament soccer matches.
- Type agate and recaps of area games. Cover local hockey and baseball games. Provide coverage of high school sports including game stories, features, capsules, box scores and recaps. Wrote game stories and features on local universities.
- Produced and co-host podcast about University of Nebraska athletics and national collegiate issues.

SKILLS

Ability to write coherent and in-depth game stories on tight deadlines. Live-tweet during games, meetings and events. Facebook Live contributions for pre-game. Cultivate sources to provide exclusive news stories to readers.

EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-LINCOLN – TWO SEMESTERS